DAV PILKE

CREATOR OF CAPTAIN UNDERPANTS

DOG MAN

~~The~~ Behind the Scenes

One Time, George met Harold in kindergarten.

nice to meet you.

me too.

They became best friends and started making comics.

Their very first comic was a epic novella called:

The ADVENCHERS of DOG Man

AKSHIN

LAFFS

PLEASE

by George and Harold

Over the years, they made TONS OF DOG Man Comic Books.

Then one day
in 4th Grade,
They got a new idea.

They started making a new Comic.

soon, their Lives got Really Complicated!

There was Danger...

... HORROR...

错综复杂的

George and Harold searched their tree house for clues...

...but soon, they got distracted.

It's a box full of ~~the~~ old Dog Man comics we made when we were kids.

Hey, I forgot ALL about these!!!

They read for hours

Ha Ha Ha Ha

I crack me up!

How about a Dog Man comic?

And Together,
the two friends wrote and drew and Laughed
all afternoon.

George Tried To SPELL

Jerome Horwitz Elementary School

We put the "ow" in Knowledge

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Beard,

Once again I am writing to inform you of your son's disruptive activity in my classroom.

The assignment was to create a WRITTEN public service message to promote reading. Your son and his friend, Harold Hutchins (I am sending a nearly identical letter to Harold's mother), were specifically told NOT to make a comic book for this assignment.

As usual, they did exactly what they were told not to do (see attached comic book). When I confronted George about his disobedience, he claimed that this was not a comic book, but a "graphic novella." I am getting fed up with George's impudence.

I have told both boys on numerous occasions that the classroom is no place for creativity, yet they continue to make these obnoxious and offensive "comix." As you will see, this comic book contains multiple references to human and/or animal feces. It also features a very questionable scene of disregard for homeless/hungry individuals. There are scenes of smoking, violence, nudity, and don't get me started on the spelling and grammar. Frankly, I found the little trash bag "baby" at the end to be very disturbing. I mean, how is that even possible?!? is personality

George's silly, disruptive behavior, as well as these increasingly disgusting and scatological comic books, are turning my classroom into a zoo. I have spoken to Principal Krupp about Dog Man on numerous occasions. We both believe that you should consider psychological counseling for your son, or at the very least some kind of behavior modification drug to cure his "creative streak."

Regretfully,

ABOUT THE AUTHOR-ILLUSTRATOR

When Dav Pilkey was a kid, he suffered from ADHD, dyslexia, and behavioral problems. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hall every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories. He spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books.

In the second grade, Dav Pilkey created a comic book about a superhero named Captain Underpants. His teacher ripped it up and told him he couldn't spend the rest of his life making silly books.

Fortunately, Dav was not a very good listener.

ABOUT THE COLORIST

Jose Garibaldi grew up on the South side of Chicago. As a kid, he was a daydreamer and a doodler, and now it's his full-time job to do both. Jose is a professional illustrator, painter, and cartoonist who has created work for Dark Horse Comics, Disney, Nickelodeon, MAD Magazine, and many more. He lives in Los Angeles, California, with his wife and their cats.
