FLiP-E-RAMA

Here's How it Works:

OPTION 1:

If your device uses FORWARD and BACKWARD buttons to turn the page, place one finger on each button. Then quickly click forward and back between the two FLip-E-Rama pages, and repeat several times until the picture appears to be poorly animated.

OPTION 2:

If your device lets you SWIPE to turn the page, use your finger to swipe once to the Left, then swipe once to the right. Then keep swiping back and forth between the two FLip-E-Rama pages until the picture appears to be poorly animated.

FLIP-E-RAMA works best if your device is turned vertically and you can only see one page at a time. Don't forget to add your own sound-effects!

The title card has a green background with a halftone dot pattern. At the top, the words "The Third Ending" are written in a yellow, outlined, sans-serif font. Below this, "Li'l Petey's STORY" is written in a large, bold, blue font with a thick black outline. Two orange cats with black stripes are positioned on either side of the title. The cat on the left is small and looking up. The cat on the right is larger and smiling. Two blue five-pointed stars are also present, one on each side of the title.

NOTES

by George and Harold

Li'l Petey's words on page 128 were taken from the following quote:

"Hate, it has caused a lot of problems
in this world,
but has not solved one yet."

-Maya Angelou

Chapter 12 was based on this precept:

"Resentment is like drinking poison and waiting for the other person to die."

-Carrie Fisher

Part 3 of the final chapter was inspired by this poem:

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight.
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing.
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there - I did not die.

-Mary Elizabeth Frye

ABOUT THE AUTHOR-ILLUSTRATOR

When Dav Pilkey was a kid, he was diagnosed with ADHD and dyslexia. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hallway every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories. He spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books — the very first adventures of Dog Man and Captain Underpants.

In college, Dav met a teacher who encouraged him to illustrate and write. He won a national competition in 1986 and the prize was the publication of his first book, World War Won. He made many other books before being awarded the 1998 California Young Reader Medal for Dog Breath, which was published in 1994, and in 1997 he won the Caldecott Honor for The Paperboy.

The Adventures of Super Diaper Baby, published in 2002, was the first complete graphic novel spin-off from the Captain Underpants series and appeared at #6 on the USA Today bestseller list for all books, both adult and children's, and was also a New York Times bestseller. It was followed by The Adventures of Dog and Gluk: Kung Fu Cavemen from the Future and Super Diaper Baby 2: The Invasion of the Potty Snatchers, both USA Today bestsellers. The unconventional style of these graphic novels is intended to encourage uninhibited creativity in kids.

His stories are semi-autobiographical and explore universal themes that celebrate friendship, tolerance, and the triumph of the good-hearted.

Dav loves to kayak in the Pacific Northwest with his wife.
