第一次机车露营。由于是重型机车，我骑车技术不行还不敢独自上山，这次在市区来朋友的浆板店露营先练练手。一步之遥就是清迈的母亲河萍河。

第一次尝试单车露营，总结八个字：手忙脚乱，还挺好玩。有两点心得：

1) Don't panic. 露营地点没踩过点，由于下雨着急支天幕也没勘查环境，结果选了一处蚂蚁多的松软地面，椅子很容易陷进去。一急脑袋就短路，许多常识都抛在了脑后。

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A s'more (alternatively spelled smore, pronounced /ˈsmɔːr/ [ⓘ], or /səˈmɔːr/) is a confection consisting of toasted marshmallow and chocolate sandwiched between two pieces of graham crackers. S'mores are popular in the United States and Canada, and are traditionally cooked over a campfire.

Etymology and origins [edit]

S'more is a contraction of the phrase "some more". The first known s'more recipe appeared in a "Campfire Marshmallows" cookbook in the early 1920s,^{[1][2]} where it was called a "Graham Cracker Sandwich". The text indicates that the treat was already popular with the Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls and Girl Scouts. In 1927, a recipe for "Some More" was published in Tramping and Trailing with the Girl Scouts.^{[3][4]} Newspaper recipes began appearing as early as 1925.^{[5][6]}

The contracted term "s'mores" appears in conjunction with the recipe in a 1938 publication aimed at summer camps.^[2] A 1956 recipe uses the name "S'Mores", and lists the ingredients as "a sandwich of two graham crackers, toasted marshmallow, and ½ chocolate bar". A 1957 Betty Crocker cookbook contains a similar recipe under the name "s'mores".^[7]

The 1958 publication Intramural and Recreational Sports for High School and College makes reference to "marshmallow toasts" and "s'mores hikes",^[8] as does its related predecessor, Intramural and Recreational Sports for Men and Women, published in 1949.^[9]

Camping gears / Consumerism

Michael Easter ✓

@Michael_Easter

Most compulsive purchases aren't driven by need.

◀ Rather, buying stuff relieves stress or boredom. ▶

Determine why you're buying items in the first place. Get brutal on yourself.

Here's a simple heuristic that's helped me make smarter purchases: Buy gear, not stuff.

Minimalism isn't the answer — intentional ownership is.

Buy what adds value to your life,
skip what doesn't.

TWO/O

The Four-Question Buying Framework

Before making a purchase, ask yourself:

- ① Why am I buying this?
- ② Am I just bored or stressed?
- ③ What do I intend to accomplish with this item?
- ④ Do I already own something that serves the same purpose?

TWO/O

The Real Issue Behind Buying and Minimizing

Both buying too much and extreme minimalism are coping mechanisms.

They provide temporary relief but do not solve deeper psychological issues.

TWO/O

A Better Alternative: Gear, Not Stuff

Instead of focusing on buying less, focus on buying better.

Own things that serve a real purpose and improve your life.

*Thoreau said,
"Most men lead lives of quiet desperation."*

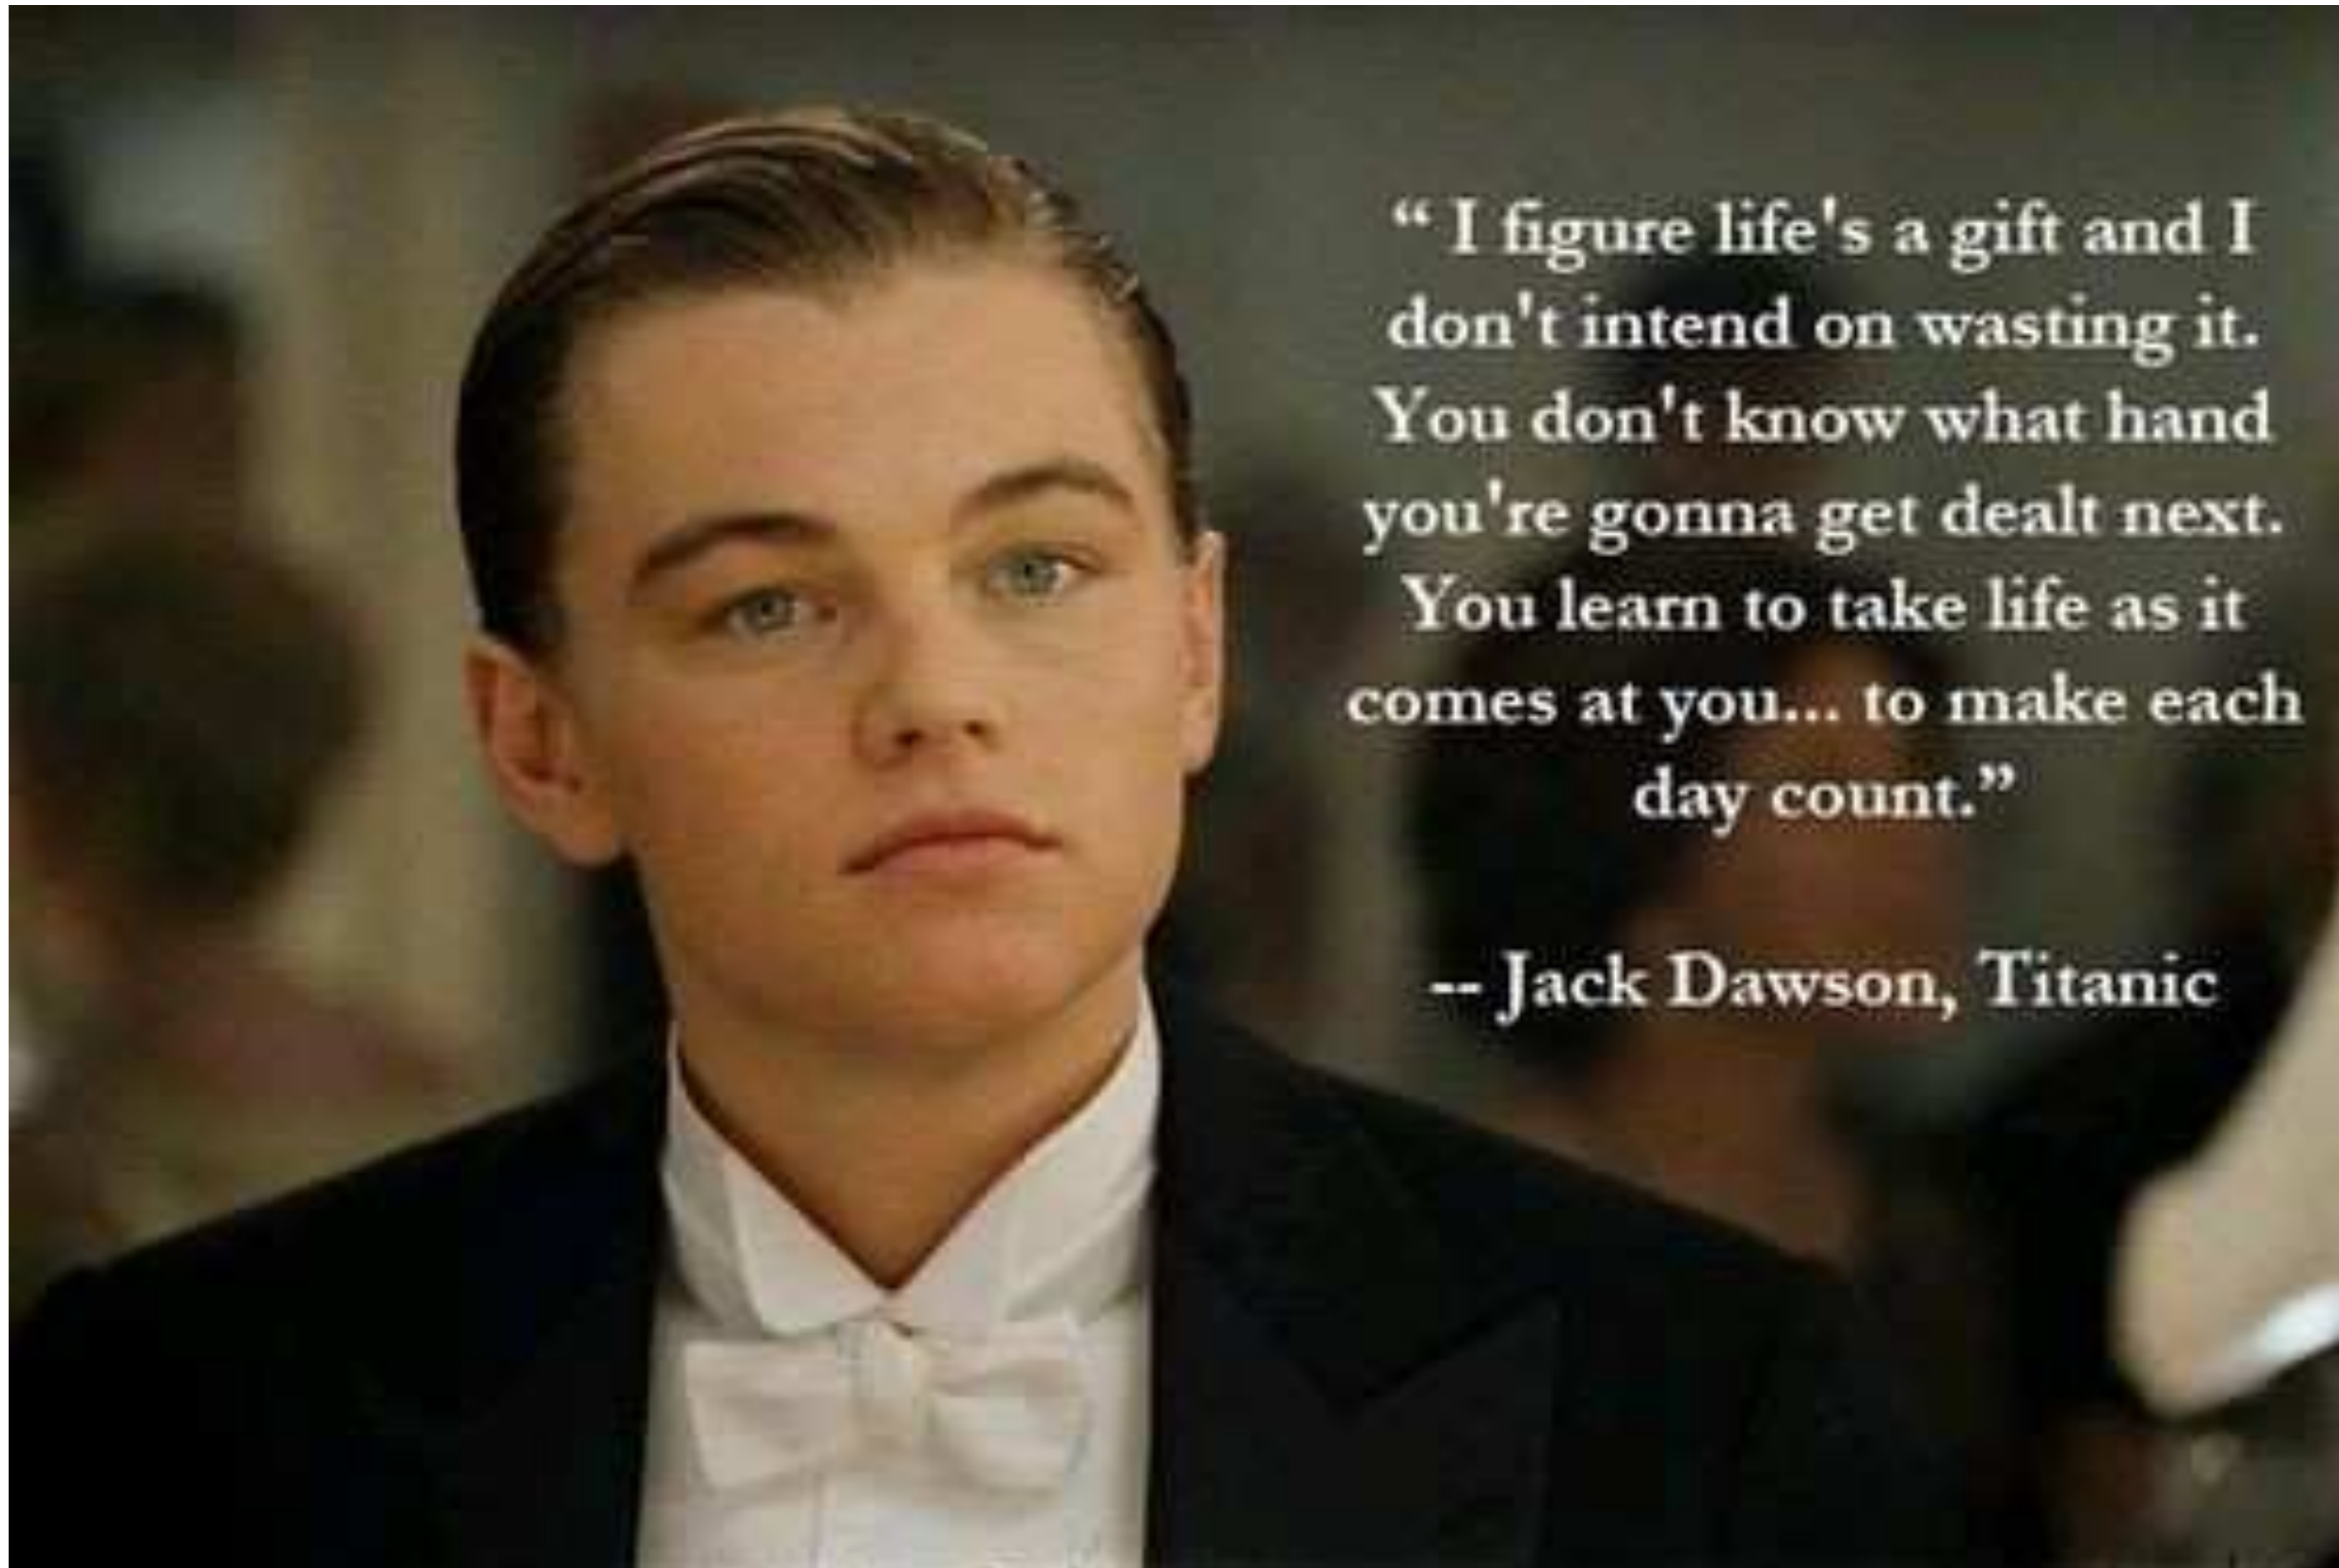

A wooden sign is mounted on two weathered wooden posts in a forest. The sign is made of dark wood with white text. The background shows a dense forest with green foliage and tree trunks. The ground is covered with brown leaves and small rocks.

"I WENT TO THE WOODS BECAUSE I WISHED TO LIVE DELIBERATELY,
TO FRONT ONLY THE ESSENTIAL
FACTS OF LIFE.
AND SEE IF I COULD NOT LEARN WHAT IT HAD TO TEACH
AND NOT, WHEN I CAME TO DIE,
DISCOVER THAT I HAD NOT LIVED."
THOREAU

John Keating: We don't read and write poetry because it's cute. We read and write poetry because we are members of the human race. And the human race is filled with passion. And medicine, law, business, engineering, these are noble pursuits and necessary to sustain life. But poetry, beauty, romance, love, these are what we stay alive for. To quote from Whitman, "O me! O life!... of the questions of these recurring; of the endless trains of the faithless... of cities filled with the foolish; what good amid these, O me, O life?" Answer. That you are here - that life exists, and identity; that the powerful play goes on and you may contribute a verse. That the powerful play goes on and you may contribute a verse. What will your verse be?

“ I figure life's a gift and I don't intend on wasting it.
You don't know what hand
you're gonna get dealt next.
You learn to take life as it comes at you... to make each day count.”

-- Jack Dawson, Titanic

To making it count.
